4. Call to Public

Annie Martinez stated that she's glad that they have something on the agenda to talk about volunteering, because it's something that has been brought up at several council meetings before and there a lot of people from the community that want to help and the town wouldn't back them, so thank you. Annie Martinez then stated to the Mayor that she is very disappointed because at the last town hall meeting it was stated that they were going to revisit the food tax, and when the agenda came out there was nothing on the agenda. She then stated this is not a dictatorship this is not exactly what you want and when you want and how you want it, you are a council. She stated you may be the mayor, but you are not the soul defending factor. Annie then said you need to remember that, because just as easily as you were elected in, we can recall you the exact way. Annie then stated that she came down the next day to get records and she spend near all day to get records and she stated that the town has a form that against Arizona revised statutes
